

CPTC Procedure: Distance Education Fees

Coastal Pines Technical College (CPTC) is committed to providing students the opportunity to access quality instruction anytime, anywhere.

CPTC students are informed of any charges associated with classes at the College at the time of course registration and through College publications. No additional fees are charged to students taking distance education courses, including verification of student identity.

Responsibility:

The Vice President for Academic Affairs has the overall responsibility for ensuring this procedure is implemented.

Adopted: November 25, 2013

Reviewed: November 16, 2022